THREE DIE AND THREE BADLY INJURED WHEN FARMER'S HOME BURNS

PARENTS BURNED IN ATTEMPT TO SAVE CHILDREN

Two Little Girls and Their Grandfather Die in the Flames; Father in Critical Condition

ATTEMPT AT RESCUE VAIN

Mother Dragged Twice from the Burning Home by Son and Daughter

GIRL TELLS PITIFUL STORY

Says They Stood and Watched Home and Loved Ones Disappear in the Flames

THE DEAD
CHRISTOPHER AMBROSON, age 86 years.
CLARA AMBROSON, age 7 years.
INGA AMBROSON, age 10 years.
THE INJURED
OLE AMBROSON, in critical condition.
ALBERT AMBROSON, arm cut and minor bruises and burns.
MRS. OLE AMBROSON, head, face and hands severely burned.

Of a family of nine, living in quiet happiness with only bright prospects to look forward to Saturday, three are today dead, buried in the ruins of their farm home at Yucatan, Minn., one is hovering between life and death at the Lutheran hospital, La Crosse, and two others are severely injured, while the three who escaped injury are homeless.

Startled by a terrifying cry from the rooms above, Ole Ambrosen saw his thirteen year old son Adolph leap from the stairway door followed by clouds of smoke and flame. A moment later he was followed by his brother Helmar, age 16.

Frantic efforts of mother and father to rescue their two daughters, Inga and Clara, and their grandfather, who were sleeping on the second floor, only resulted in injuries which may cause the father's death. Dragged from the burning building by her other children, Mrs. Ambrosen stood dazed and bewildered for hours watching the destruction of her home and loved ones.

Girl Tells Story

At the Lutheran hospital today between sobs which she bravely tried to control, Miss Marie Ambrosen told of how she, her mother and father were sitting in the kitchen when the fire broke out. The father made a dash for the upper floor and vainly attempted to locate the children and his father, but in vain, and he finally staggered from the building to drop in a dying condition just outside the door.

"Mother was led from the house by Carl and myself as soon as the fire started, but she rushed back and up the stairs," said Miss Ambrosen. "We followed and dragged her back as she was about to plunge into the fire above. Then we stood about and watched the fire until morning. Then and only then, when all was in ruins, could we persuade mother to leave."

Will Not Leave Scene

Neighbors who crowded to the scene of destruction tried to prevail upon the family to seek shelter in nearby homes but although the temperature was 30 below zero they remained rooted to the spot until the first rays of light in the east announced the dawn of a new day.

The fire started between ten and eleven o'clock Sunday night and is thought to have been caused by the chimney on the second floor but it was impossible to learn definitely. Owing to lack of fire fighting facilities there was no possibility of saving the home.

Clara and Inga, the two children who perished, were sleeping on the second floor as was Christopher Ambrosen, who was also burned to death, and his two grandsons, Adolph and Helmar, Albert, age 28, and Carl, age 26, were also sleeping on the second floor, while Marie and her parents were sitting in the kitchen. The fire was discovered by one of the ladies who made this escape followed by his two brothers, Helmar and Carl, Albert, when awakened, tried to rescue the children but was driven back by the fire. Upon reaching the ground floor he found that his retreat was cut off, the fire having spread, and jumped through a window, severely cutting his arm.

ICE GORGE GOES THREE LOSE LIVES

Man and Boy Die in Vain Effort to Save Woman; Ground to Pieces by the Ice

HUSBAND AND LAD HEROES

Refuse Opportunities to Escape in Order to Save the Helpless Woman; Bodies Lost

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Feb. 5.—The great ice bridge that has choked the river channel between the cataract and the upper bridge below the falls for the last three weeks, broke at noon on Sunday and went down the river, taking with it to their deaths a man and woman, said to be Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Stanton of Toronto, and Burrell Heacock, 17 years old, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Somewhere, deep in the great whirlpool Sunday night, slept the man, partially identified as Mr. Stanton, who twice put aside chances of rescue in order to remain with his terror stricken wife, and who, in the shadow of death, spurned assistance for himself and attempted to bind about the woman's body a rope dangling from the lower steel arch bridge. The lad, Burrell Heacock, was cast in the same mold. Had he not turned back on the ice to give assistance to the man, he, too, might have made the shore.

The man and woman started first toward the American shore, but they were stopped by a lane of open water. Back they ran again toward the Canadian side, turned about and again made for the American side. When hardly more than fifty yards from the rocky shore the woman fell on her face utterly spent.

"I can't go on! I can't go on!" she cried. "Let us die here!"

And all the time the great field of ice, driven onward by a south-westerly gale and pressed by a jam broken free from its anchorage near the base of the Horseshoe falls, went on breasting the terrible outrush of the Niagara Falls Power company's tunnel outflow, the mightiest current in all the river, without being broken. As the woman fell the man strove to get her to her feet again and tried to drag her along the ice, calling for assistance to Roth and Heacock, who were nearest. Heacock turned back to the couple and helped support the woman. The act cost him his life.

URGES ALDRICH PLAN

REPRESENTATIVE VREELAND IN SPEECH TODAY RECOMMENDS CURRENCY REFORM OF MONETARY COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Denouncing the present monetary system of the country Representative Vreeland (Rep., N. Y.) in the house today recommended the Aldrich currency reform scheme proposed by the National Monetary commission.

"All businesses rest upon the banking system," he said, "and when it breaks down they break down with it. The people have almost come to regard money panics as a dispensation of Providence, like earthquakes and cyclones. It is almost a crime to permit the panics to continue to sweep over the country with all the losses and suffering they bring in their wake."

Vreeland recommended remedies for the existing conditions: "First, a currency based upon gold and commercial paper endorsed by banks, which will be responsive to the needs of business. Its increase and decrease should be automatic. Following the example of the other great nations of the world, this note issue should come from a central organization under regulation of law."

"Second, a mobilization of a part of our cash reserves—four or five million dollars—in the hands of some central organization where it can be used instantly in overwhelming amounts whenever needed."

3 MURDERED AND BURNED

NEWATA, Okla., Feb. 5.—The bodies of Harvey Hurst, his wife and Miss Elsie Adams, 16, were found half burned in the ruins of the Hurst home at Delaware, an oil town near here, early today. All are believed to have been murdered before the house was fired, bullet holes being found in the tops of their heads.

To Save Her Brother Woman Says She Killed

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Despite the fact that his sister, Mrs. Theresa Martin, hysterically protested in open court that she, and not her brother, killed Charles Muldoon, and on her knees begged that sentence be suspended. James McDermott, former clerk in the Hotel Belmont, was sent to Sing Sing prison for not less than four years and six months by Judge Foster today. McDermott was convicted of manslaughter for killing Muldoon after his sister had sworn that she committed the crime because Muldoon previously insulted her and their unborn child.

"Judge, you are sentencing an innocent man. For God's sake remember that I killed Charles Muldoon and my brother had nothing to do with it," wailed Mrs. Martin.

"You told that story to the jury and they did not believe you," said Judge Foster, and he ordered the woman ejected. He then imposed sentence.

CITY HALL IS 20 YEARS OLD

Saturday Is Twentieth Anniversary of City Building and Seventieth of City

TO BE NO CELEBRATION

Corner Stone was Laid July 4, 1891, and Building Dedicated February 10, 1892

Saturday will mark the twentieth anniversary of the dedication of the city hall, and the seventieth anniversary of the city of La Crosse. The dedication of the city hall, which cost $42,811.13, took place at the city hall Wednesday, February 10, 1892.

The following program was held at the dedication services:

Music—Langsdorf's band.
Prayer—Rev. Wm. Torrance.
Delivery of keys—Building committee.

Response—The Mayor.
Music—Band.
Story of the First Days—Nathan Myrick.

History of the Municipal Government—Hon. John M. Levy.
Music—Band.
Our Commercial Progress—Robert Calvert.

Music—Band.
An hour of reminiscence.
Benediction—Rev. Henry Faville.
Informal reception at the building from 7:30 to 10:30 p. m.

Facts About Building
The land upon which the city hall was built was purchased in 1889, three years previous to its erection. In January, 1891, the resolution calling for the erection of the building was adopted and the contract was let to J. Schwabe & Son a few months later. Work on the building was started April 1, 1891, the cornerstone was laid July 4 of the same year. The occasion was one of ceremony and was the main feature of the Fourth of July celebration. The building was occupied January 20, and dedicated February 10, 1892. The plans for the building were drawn by Stoltze & Shick, architects.

Old City Officers
The city officers at that time were: Frederick A. Copeland, mayor; Norris C. Bacheller, clerk; J. Roth, treasurer; C. H. Schweizer, city attorney; J. H. Clark, coronator; E. J. Kelly, William Tarbox and J. Hahn, members of the board of public works; L. O. C. Hays, tax commissioner; L. Pettigling, assessors; A. Steinlein, police justice; H. H. Byrne, chief of police; J. A. Benly, physician; H. Crosby, engineer; C. F. Schaff, superintendent of poor; C. A. Hunt, chief of fire department; John Banker, health officer; W. T. Symons, president of the common council; and Aldermen J. B. Murray, F. T. Becker, H. Neibuhr, J. M. Holley, William Gohres, B. L. Strouse, I. Emberson, W. T. Symons, E. C. Erickson, William Grover, William Neumeister, George Zeisler, Wenzel Grams, William Lohmiller, N. S. Rice, G. H. Gordon, E. F. Kowalko, George Euler, E. G. Boynton and Frank Brown.

The members of the building committee were: J. M. Holley, J. B. Murray, L. Emberson, W. Grams and N. S. Rice.

There have been no plans made for a celebration of the anniversary this year.

BLUMENBERG REFUSES APOLOGY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Electing to face contempt proceedings before the senate, Milton W. Blumenberg, official stenographer of the Lorimer investigating committee today declined to make any statement in explanation of his action of Saturday night when he interrupted the committee's proceedings to denounce as a "fake" the stenographic record presented by Detective Sheridan of the Burns agency. He declined to apologize.

BABY EMPEROR GIVES UP REINS OF GOVERNMENT

Edict of Abdication of the Chinese Imperial Family Is Signed and Delivered

IN HANDS OF PREMIER YUAN

Yuan Shi Kai Holds Edict which Will Be Published when Arrangements Are Completed

SUN AND YUAN TO RULE

Dr. Sun Yat Sen and Premier to Rule Country Until Constitution Is Formed and President Chosen

PEKIN, Feb. 5.—The oldest empire in the world today became the youngest republic.

The signed edict, announcing the abdication of Emperor Pu Yi, was in the hands of Premier Yuan Shi Kai, who, it was announced would make it public as soon as final negotiations had been closed with the provisional government headed by Dr. Sun Yat Sen.

Kung Will Not Submit

Prince Kung, who headed the faction which opposed abdication, departed for Manchuria vowing that he would never submit to dictation by the southern Celestials, and declaring that history would repeat itself in the near future, when the Tartars from the north would again sweep down upon the Chinese.

The edict of abdication was formally turned over to Yuan after the dowager empress, the boy emperor and Prince Chun had prayed fervently at the tombs of their ancestors. The empress tearfully begged the premier not to make the abdication public until every precaution had been taken to protect the royal family from a threatened outbreak by Manchus who swore bloody revenge on the terms of the revolutionists were granted.

Sun and Yuan to Rule

It was generally believed that the republicans at Nankin would agree to permit Dr. Sun to act jointly with Yuan in governing China until after a national convention had been held to draw a constitution and elect a president.

The fact that the empress called on Yuan to establish a republic when she handed the abdication decree to him, was interpreted here to mean that she received assurances that the premier would be elected president. The royal family, despite the charges of treachery it has hurled at Yuan, believes he is the strongest man in China.

DO YOU WANT A FAIR IN 1912?

Fair Directors Solicit Opinions of Business Men as to Desirability of Continuing

"Are you in favor of a fair in 1912?"

"In your opinion is a fair beneficial to La Crosse?"

Above are two questions asked on a postal card sent out by the directors of the Interstate Fair association today, and upon the answers received will hinge the decision as to whether there will be a fair in La Crosse this year.

The directors feel that every citizen who entertains an opinion should promptly answer the card, as the association wants it to be guided by the popular opinion regarding the value of the institution.

GEORGE AND MARY HOME AT LAST

PORTSMOUTH, England, Feb. 5.—King George and Queen Mary were given a noisy welcome here today when they set foot on English soil for the first time since they left on their spectacular durbar trip. Great crowds lined the wharves and the South railway jetty at the dockyard, where their majesties landed and cries of "Long live the king; long live the queen," could be heard above the roar of the battleship guns as they thundered the royal salute.

BEEDLE NOT CANDIDATE

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 5.—Deputy Insurance Commissioner George E. Beedle today issued a statement saying that he would not be a candidate for congress from the Eighth district. This leaves State Senator Brown the only progressive candidate in that district.

Organization To Protect All Game

Next week, the exact date to be announced later, those who have signified their desire to become members of the proposed La Crosse County Association for the Protection of Game, Fish and Song Birds, will meet in the county court room to perfect the organization and map out a plan of campaign.

This announcement was made today by William Wermuth, who made the first move toward the organization. Mr. Wermuth hopes to have a speaker present from some similar organization. It is stated that fully 500 sportsmen, fishermen and hunters, have signed the roll for the association, thus assuring a splendid organization.

All interested in the protection of game and fish are requested to attend the meeting without regard to whether they have signed the roll of membership.

DOUBLE SUICIDE ENDS ROMANCE

Former Wife of Walter Suydam and Plumber Sweetheart Die Together in Their Flat

ASPHYXIATION IS THE AGENT

Two Elopers, Tired of Life, Found in Each Other's Arms Beside Range in Kitchen

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Double suicide ended the sensational romance of the former wife of Walter L. Suydam, and Frederick Noble, the young plumber, for the love of whom Mrs. Suydam ran away from her millionaire husband and married.

Die in Each Other's Arms

The bodies of Noble and his bride of a month were found in their New York apartment on Sunday. The couple had been asphyxiated by gas.

The bodies were found in the kitchen of their apartment. Their heads were close by the open door of the gas range oven. They were partly undressed and clasped in each other's arms. The discovery was made by Mrs. John J. White of Washington, D. C., mother of Mrs. Noble.

The door had been barricaded with chairs and tables and the doors of all the rooms also were locked and barricaded. When the party forced its way to the dining room the odor of gas was first detected and the mother became hysterical. Breaking through the next door, when led into the kitchen, the party found Noble and his wife dead.

Mrs. Noble was clad in a silk kimono. She lay with Noble's left arm encircling her, their faces being close together.

Millionaire on Scene

A few minutes after the discovery Mrs. Noble's former husband, Walter L. Suydam, a millionaire, arrived. He was much affected. He was not allowed to view the body of Mrs. Noble, which was given over to her mother.

Married because conventionality demanded it, the divorced wife of Walter L. Suydam, Jr., and the young man with whom she eloped, victims of yesterday's suicide pact, will lie far from each other.

Mr. Noble was buried today in the old family plot on Long Island, only members of his immediate family being present. The woman lies in a receiving vault. On her coffin is a big bunch of scarlet roses, mixed with lilies of the valley, her favorite flowers, placed there by her mother and the man she disgraced by eloping with young Noble.

"We may laugh sometimes at the old things," she told an intimate less than a week ago, "things like the law and religion when they say 'Thou shalt not,' and we may sneer at 'The wages of sin is death,' but the time will come when we will know that they are right. We cannot go against them without suffering. I have learned that. I have learned that the wages of sin is death—and worse. It's a hell on earth."

It was agreed by all of the friends of the dead couple that the discovery they had nothing in common, was really the cause of their suicide. Even before they were married, the woman had told friends that "if she could have been sure Fred would not have killed himself," she would not have married him. The couple had quarreled frequently recently.

ELGIN RUTTER MARKET

ELGIN, Ill., Feb. 5.—The board of trade today fixed the price of butter at 32 cents a pound, a decrease of four cents from last week's quotation. The market is firm and the output for the week was 620,000 pounds.

The quotation committee's report today fixed the price at 32 1/2 cents, but Thomas F. Gallagher, a Chicago commission broker objected and after a number of sales on the open board the committee's report was ignored and the price fixed at 32 cents.

LA FOLLETTE MAY BE WITHDRAWN FROM THE RACE FOR NOMINATION

ALL BUT THREE ARE FOR HIGBEE

MEANS HIS RE-ELECTION

Substantial Support Given Will Deter Judge from Idea of Returning to His Practice

With three exceptions, every attorney in La Crosse county today signed a petition to place the name of E. C. Higbee before the public as a candidate for re-election to the office of circuit judge.

The attorneys who did not sign the petition are Cameron L. Baldwin, George H. Gordon and Frank E. Withrow.

Mr. Withrow is understood to be friendly to the candidacy of Judge Higbee, but is barred by the constitution of the socialists, of which he is a member, from publicly supporting the candidacy of any man not a socialist.

It is rumored that the socialists will make Withrow their candidate for the position, but the attorney positively declined to discuss the matter.

Judge Baldwin, it is said, has been mentioned by persons not friendly to Judge Higbee as an opposing candidate, but he refused either to affirm or deny that he might become a candidate, nor would he discuss any phase of the subject.

The petition for Judge Higbee was circulated today by A. C. Wolfe, of the firm of Wolfe & Wolfe. Mr. Wolfe expressed himself as pleased with the cordial reception accorded the petition.

Among friends of Judge Higbee it had been believed that, had the petition failed to receive practically unanimous approval among the members of the bar, His Honor would decline to run, preferring to return to a practice which was undoubtedly more lucrative than the bench. The substantial nature of the support given, however, seems to have disposed of all doubt that Mr. Higbee will remain upon the bench.

Judge Higbee's petition, it is understood, has been circulated in the other counties of the circuit with equally conclusive results.

MYSTERY IN DEATH

WOMAN BLOWN TO PIECES BY BOMB; MOTIVE UNKNOWN; JEALOUSY OR REVENGE THEORIES

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Jealousy or revenge were the theories of a score of detectives were working on today to penetrate the mystery surrounding the murder of Mrs. Helen Taylor, blown to pieces by a bomb Saturday night. The police only have a typewritten address, pieces of the bomb and the dead woman's record as clues.

The revenge theory originates from the fact that the woman was fined some time ago for harboring an Italian child who had been decoyed here from the Pennsylvania oil fields. Relatives of the girl found fault because the woman was not sent to prison and are alleged to have threatened to get even.

Charles M. Dickinson, who says he was in the room when the bomb exploded, was still held without bail. Coroner Feinberg, who began his inquiry today insisted that the police were mistaken in thinking Dickinson, who is a stenographer employed by the United States Motor company, knew anything about the crime.

ROOSEVELT FAVORITE TAFT AT EVEN MONEY

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 5.—The betting men have begun to lay wagers on the presidential nomination. So brisk has the betting become that local poolrooms today posted odds. Roosevelt seems to be the favorite for the republican nomination. Here are the bets posted in one poolroom: 100 to 250 Roosevelt will be the next president of the United States; 50 to 25 Champ Clark will not be nominated; 100 to 100 Taft gets the Colorado delegation; 50 to 25 La Follette will not be nominated; 100 to 100 Taft will get the nomination; 200 to 100 Roosevelt will not be the next president.

ILL HEALTH IS REASON FOR THE PROPOSED ACTION

Progressive Leaders at a Meeting Last Night Prepare Statement that Senator Drop Out

BOB NOT YET CONSULTED

Statement Has Not Been Submitted to Progressive Senator; May Not Quit Race

MUST TAKE LONG VACATION

Two Months Rest Planned by Senator Before He Will Be Able to Resume Campaign

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—It developed here this afternoon that following a conference of republican progressive leaders, a statement was prepared by friends of Senator La Follette proposing his withdrawal from the race for the republican presidential nomination on the ground that his health made such action necessary. This statement was not submitted to the senator, and for the present was withheld. His friends took the action upon their belief that his physical condition did not warrant his assuming the responsibility at this time of such a decision. They thought it best to take the matter into their own hands.

At the La Follette headquarters, it was asserted that no official statement could be made at this time, as it was made known that Senator La Follette had not been personally consulted regarding the situation, and that he might yet veto the action of his friends. Senators Clapp and Bristow, with Walter L. Houser, La Follette's personal manager, and other advisers drafted the announcement which they are withholding.

A lengthy conference of the La Follette supporters was held here last night, John Packler, who has been in charge of the Ohio campaign for La Follette met the progressive leaders and they went over the situation in detail. La Follette was not present. He was represented in the conference by Colonel John Hannan, Walter L. Houser, and Representative Lenroot of Wisconsin, his personal friends.

Senators Clapp, Bristow and Bourne, and Medill McCormick attended.

It was decided that the senator's condition called for some action by his friends. But it was admittedly impossible to call La Follette himself in and ask him to withdraw. Therefore a statement was framed announcing his withdrawal from the race. But up to early this afternoon La Follette had not been told of the statement and it had not yet been made public.

According to statements issued early this morning, the senator has not thought of withdrawing from (Continued on Page 6, col. 3)

WEATHER

For La Crosse and vicinity: Generally fair and continued cold tonight and Tuesday.

For Wisconsin: Fair tonight and Tuesday; not much change in temperature.

For Minnesota: Generally fair tonight and Tuesday; somewhat colder west portion tonight.

The pressure is above normal this morning except in the north Atlantic states where a storm is located; it is highest over the plains states. Temperatures below freezing were recorded this morning at all stations from the Rocky mountain districts to the Gulf and Atlantic coasts. Killing frost is reported at New Orleans and Jacksonville. The temperature is but slightly above zero at any northern station and 16 below at Williston. Along the Pacific slope the temperatures range from 32 to 52, with rain in Oregon and Washington. Elsewhere the weather is generally fair, except in the lake region where light local snow is falling.

Generally fair weather is indicated for this section tonight and Tuesday without much change in temperature.

Louise Gunning, In The "Balkan Princess"

MISS GUNNING'S PEARL DRESS

Miss Louise Gunning, pleasantly remembered for her charming interpretation of the prima donna role in "Marcelle," is to return on Thursday night, February 8, to the La Crosse theater in "The Balkan Princess." This is her first time, after her reign, a long one and merry, at the Herald Square and Casino theaters in New York.

A striking feature of the famous court scene in the royal palace of Princess Stephanie is the gorgeous gown worn by Miss Gunning. This sartorial confection was specially woven for the young and talented star, and is a triumph of the Rue de la Paix, Paris. The foundation of the gown is Mousselin de Poie into which has been intricately woven ever so many white pearls. This beautiful dress creation is at once the admiration and despair of the customer who sees it for the first time. The number of pearls upon it is a secret with Miss Gunning. While on four recently a curiously minded lady wished to probe into this secret, but was met with the ever ready wit of the star.

"My dear Miss Gunning," said the curious one, "how ever did you collect such a quantity of pearls, and where did you acquire them? They must have cost you a small fortune?"

"Do you promise not to tell anyone if I reveal the secret?" asked Miss Gunning.

"I certainly do," was the instant reply.

"Well, I got them from the oysters that I ate."

"But, Miss Gunning, there is only an average of one pearl in a thousand oysters."

"I know, but I began eating them at an early age and was extremely lucky. Good day."

When last seen the curious one was laboring with pen and paper to figure out Miss Gunning's age and how many thousands of oysters she had consumed.

PREDICTS DEFEAT FOR SOCIALISTS

"The socialists won't have a look in at the next election in Milwaukee. The democrats and republicans have formed an alliance that carry all before it. In my opinion Dr. Bading will be the next mayor and the entire city ticket will be 'independent.'"

This is the prediction of F. O. Phelps, former county clerk of Milwaukee, who is a business visitor in La Crosse today. Mr. Phelps dropped in at the office of County Clerk Charles Rawlinson today and naturally the talk took a political turn. Mr. Phelps was emphatic in his assertion that the two old parties have really combined against the "common foe," the socialist party, and that the result would be an overwhelming defeat for the socialists. He says that the only chance the socialists have is to stir up discord in the ranks of the new alliance and that the situation is such that such a procedure is next to impossible.

SPARTA DEFEATS AGGIES 30 TO 17

Onalaska School Plays Well but the Spartans Are Victors by Thirteen Points

Although they put up a great battle to the finish the Agricultural school was unable to overcome the lead which the Sparta High school obtained and the Onalaska school went down to defeat before the Spartans by the score of 30 to 17 in a well played contest at the agricultural school gymnasium Saturday evening.

The visitors outweighed the aggie boys and their work in scoring field goals was superior but they were completely outclassed in team work by the Onalaska five. In the first half the score was close at all stages the Spartans being ahead at the end of that period, by the score of 14 to 9. However, the floor work of the aggies during that time was better than Sparta's play in that department. Again in the last period the agricultural school quintet outplayed the Spartans in team work but they were unable to score goals from the field.

Evans, the Sparta center, starred for his team; Jefferson at forward did most of the scoring by making seven field goals and six free throws, a total of twenty points. Pralle, center, and Reid, forward, scored the majority of the points for the agricultural school. The game was free from roughness although the play was fast and fierce throughout with both teams battling hard for a victory.

About one hundred people saw the contest and they cheered to the finish for the agricultural school quintet. On February 17 the aggies are scheduled to play a return game at Sparta when they expect to win and in that way gain revenge on the Spartans for the defeat handed them at Onalaska.

The lineup:

Field goals—Reid, 2; Pralle, 2; Lundemo, 2; Lupie, 1; Jefferson, 7; Evans, 4; Lang, 1. Free throws—Reid, 2; Pralle, 1; Jefferson, 6. Referee, George Bedessen, La Crosse. Y. M. C. A. Time of halves—20 minutes.

IMPORTING STRIKE DETECTIVES ILLEGAL

MUSCATINE, Iowa, Feb. 5.—By making a temporary injunction permanent, District Judge Noran of Muscatine county has declared it illegal to pay from city or county funds the scores of "detectives" brought here by the sheriff and the chief of police to intimidate the striking button workers the past year. As a result the officials who secured these men in Chicago or the button manufacturers behind them will have to foot the bills.

Ingratitude quickly sours the milk of human kindness.

COULON WINS FROM CONLEY

Champion Lands Five Blows to Challenger's One; Conley Cut to Pieces at End

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 5.—Johnny Coulon of Chicago, successfully defended his title as bantam-weight champion on Saturday by winning from Frankie Conley of Kenosha, Wis., at the end of twenty rounds of fierce fighting in the Vernon arena. Coulon landed five blows to Conley's one, but did not seem to possess the strength of his opponent. Conley was in bad shape at the close of the fight, his face being cut in a half dozen places and both eyes nearly closed.

As early as the third round Conley's face was bleeding from Coulon's stinging punches, but every round found him boring in, head down, taking a half dozen blows for the sake of getting one in return. Conley's punches, when they landed, shook the champion to his toes and he frequently gave ground before Conley, who often found, however, a terrific punch waiting for him when he pursued too eagerly.

The fight see-sawed through the twenty rounds, the majority going to the champion. The battle ended with the men fighting head to head in a clinch, blood from Conley's mouth running down Coulon's back and both Coulon's eyes nearly closed.

The first round was Coulon's. Conley rushed, but received two hard rights to the stomach and several rights and lefts to the face and jaw. Coulon evened up the second and fought Coulon to the ropes. The third went to Coulon, who gave three stiff rights to the jaw in exchange for a right to the stomach and a left to the jaw. Long range fighting marked the fourth.

In the thirteenth Coulon sent Conley to cover with uppercuts to the jaw and he took the next three rounds, upsetting Conley's rushes with accurate punches. In the seventeenth Coulon nearly took Conley off his feet with rights and lefts to the jaw, but Conley took the round with four hard lefts to the body and a right to the jaw and laughed at Coulon as the bell rang. Coulon slipped to the floor in the eighteenth, but was up in an instant. He staggered Conley with a right to the stomach. The nineteenth was even, with few blows landed.

In the final round Coulon punched Conley into a clinch and took a left to the face. They fought fiercely head to head. Coulon landing a hard left to the stomach. Coulon landed right and lefts to Conley's face. Coulon broke away with a hard left to Conley's wind and jabbed him repeatedly in the face.

The crowd cheered as Referee Eytton gave the decision to Coulon.

BIKE RIDER ILL

BERLIN, Feb. 5.—George Wiley, the American bicycle rider, who fell during the beginning of the six day race here, is in a critical condition today and physicians say he may not live. Wiley is suffering from concussion of the brain. His home is in Syracuse, N. Y.

WASHBURN TEAM HAS GOOD RECORD

The Washburn school basketball team continued its winning streak Saturday when they defeated the Washington school quintet by the score of 25 to 5 and retained their position as league leaders as well as their record of not having lost a contest this season. Although the Washington five put up a determined battle, they could not down the leaders who were playing a good game and who allowed the losers but two field goals.

All the contests were won by decisive scores, the Hamilton school being victors over the normal school team 22 to 4, while the Lincoln school first team downed the Lincoln seconds by the count of 16 to 7. The losers were held down to low scores and the Lincoln seconds could score but two field goals, while the normal school team got only one goal from the field.

The basketball season for the grade school teams will end next Saturday, when the final games will be held. After the close of the season an all star team will be picked to play some of the high school class teams.

POLICE TO ARREST SILENT RELATIVES

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Baffled in their efforts to secure a clue to the kidnapers of little Antonia Maggioro and the murderers of the Marello brothers, two crimes laid to black handers, which have terrorized inhabitants of the Italian colony, the police have threatened to arrest all the relatives of these black hand victims unless they are given proper co-operation in their search.

The 1,500 children attending the Jenner public school organized searching brigades and they are investigating every house and nook and cranny in the Italian district.

CHICAGO LOSES TO PURDUE

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Feb. 5.—The supporters of the crack Purdue five in the basketball championships of the Big Eight conference colleges are confident that their team will land the title following their easy defeat of the Chicago university team Friday night. The score was 33 to 32. The championship lies between Purdue and Wisconsin, neither team having lost a game.

FIGHT RULE CHANGE

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Local bowlers who will attend the American Bowling Congress as delegates are preparing today to make a strenuous fight on the plan proposed by St. Louis for individual membership in the congress. Chicago bowlers are determined to continue the club feature of the national pin organization when the big congress and tournament takes place here next month.

HOPPE VS. SUTTON WEDNESDAY

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Willie Hoppe, the youthful billiard champion, will defend his 18.2 balk line title against George Sutton of Chicago in the ball room of the Hotel Astor on Wednesday night. Hoppe and Sutton have met five times for this championship, Hoppe winning three times. If he retains the championship emblem March 16, it becomes his personal property.

WISCONSIN SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 5.—The university of Wisconsin baseball dates have been announced as follows: April 17, Chicago at Madison; April 19, Purdue at Lafayette; April 20, Indiana at Bloomington; April 26, Northwestern at Madison; April 27, Minnesota at Madison; May 4, Illinois at Evanston; May 10, Northwestern at Chicago; May 17, Indiana at Madison; May 18, Minnesota at Madison; May 23, Purdue at Madison; May 25, Illinois at Champaign; June 1, Minnesota at Minneapolis.

MARQUARD GETS MUGGSY PEEVED

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—It was reported today that "Rube" Marquard, star twirler of the National league, who is holding out for more salary, may be placed on the ineligible list by Manager McGraw and permitted to play only on McGraw's terms.

McGraw and Marquard were to meet Saturday and talk over terms. Marquard failed to show up and McGraw, whose temper is short, grew angry and left. He is reported to have said that any further advances would have to come from the pitcher. The loss of Marquard would be a severe blow to the Giants' pennant hopes for 1912.

HENDRICKS TO GET CLUB

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—It was stated at Western league headquarters here today that Jack Hendricks, the hustling manager of the Denver Grizzlies, is to be made a magnate of the league. Owner James McGill of the Denver Franchise will offer Hendricks a fourth interest in the team at a figure that will make Hendricks' holdings practically a present to him. This arrangement will be a recognition of Hendricks' excellent service to his team and an inducement to further quest for pennant winners.

HOUSTON, MINN.

T. R. Parish of Rushford spent last Sunday with relatives.

Loren Boekman is visiting old time friends here.

Miss Blanche Whitehouse is the new "Hello Girl" at the People's Telephone exchange.

H. W. Jacobson and wife of Minneapolis, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Thomson.

Mrs. C. W. Anderson entertained the "Merry Circle" at her home last Friday. Supper was served.

Mrs. N. A. Holmes and daughter, Florence, returned to Moberg, S. D., Saturday.

Max Harris left Monday for Coon Valley, where he will work on the Coon Valley Herald.

H. S. Tonjum is in the Twin Cities this week.

Prof. Weld attended grand opera at St. Paul.

Miss Nora Abrahamson has been confined to the house with a severe cold. Miss Edna Hvambahl has been working in her place at the Houston Co-operative store.

Max Harris spent Sunday at Hokah, the guest of friends.

Mrs. Lars Skiftun spent last week at Black Hammer being called there by the serious illness of her mother.

Miss Mabel Hanson spent Monday in Rushford.

Miss C. Campbell attended the debate at Winona Friday.

The total trade of the United Kingdom is 1910 was estimated at $5,900,158,424.

AMERICAN LEAGUE OWNERS TO MEET

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—One week from tomorrow, club owners of the American league will meet in the Congress hotel here for the league's annual schedule meeting.

Owing to the adoption by the league of the plan of adopting two permanent schedules, one for every other year, the matter of choosing a schedule is one of minor importance and interest centers in the trades that may be arranged.

The American league clubs which are most anxious to obtain new players are the St. Louis Browns and the Washington club, but Manager Connie Mack of the world's champion Athletics, is the only manager who can afford to turn a deaf ear to all 'swapping' proposals.

SOCIALISTS CHANGE POLICE UNIFORMS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 5.—The socialist plan of turning patrolmen into militia like guardians of the peace and having them use their voice, rather than force, in restoring order and maintaining peaceful conditions, is not meeting with approval from the police for less than one-fifth have responded to the appeal of Alderman Welley, chairman of the council police committee, for suggestions on changing their garb. Only a few of the 100, who have responded, signed their names. Alderman Welley is conducting a referendum vote on his suggestion, the same as Alderman Coleman of the fire department committee regarding firemen's uniforms.

KICK ON BANQUETS

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Protesting that unfair tactics have been employed against them during the two weeks of their tour through Canada and the United States, in which they have met crack curling rinks of every locality, the Scotch champions prepared to take on the leading curlers of Illinois. Scotchmen declare that after every "day's work" their antagonists have insisted on banqueting them and following these nightly repasts the playing form of the visitors has fallen off alarmingly. A. C. Riddal, veteran of the visitors who is 62, declares he will attend no more banquets.

MOTOR BOAT SHOW BIG

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Advance preparations indicate that the annual motorboat show at the Madison Square Gardens beginning Feb. 17 will be the largest ever held in America. A feature will be a bureau of information, where trained men will explain every detail of a motorboat.

GIANTS START FEB. 17

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—It was announced at Giant headquarters today that the 17 "rookies" signed by the New York Nationals this year would leave St. Louis Feb. 17 for Marlin Springs, Texas, where the Giants are to train.

GIBBONS PEEVED

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Stung by criticisms that he had not trained properly for his recent bout with Jack Denning, Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul fighter, today announced that he would be in perfect shape February 7, for his fight with Mike Cashman and that he expected to win with a knockout.

HOW FAR PROGRESS HAS PROGRESSED

A recent report by Jonathan Bourne, Jr., president of the National Progressive Republican league, sets forth a number of facts of general interest relating to the status of progressive legislation in the various states, as follows:

Initiative and referendum amendments have been adopted in South Dakota, Oregon, Oklahoma, Colorado, Nevada, Missouri, Montana, Arkansas, Maine and California.

Initiative and referendum amendments have been indorsed by legislatures for submission to a vote of the people in Washington, Wyoming, North Dakota, Nebraska, Florida, Idaho and Wisconsin.

The Oregon plan of popular election of United States senators has been adopted in Oregon, Nebraska, Nevada, Minnesota, New Jersey, Ohio, Kansas, California and Wisconsin.

States which have adopted the Oregon plan of popular vote for candidates for party nomination for president and vice president, with the dates on which the primary votes will be had, are:

North Dakota, March 19, 1912; Wisconsin, April 2, 1912; Nebraska, April 17, 1912; Oregon, April 19, 1912; New Jersey, May 28, 1912.

PROOF OF NEED OF NEW GOVERNMENT

If those who are interested in Mr. Tarbox's resolution, pending in the city council, providing for the abolition of the board of public works will take the trouble to follow the idea to its legitimate conclusion—a new and practical system of city government—the incident will probably prove of value.

We do not enjoy criticism of public officials, nor do we believe the taxpayers find consolation in gratuitous fault finding, but citizens are awakening to the fact that they must exercise an influence in regard to city business if they expect to get a "run for their money."

Instances which emphasize the need of better machinery for doing the work of the city are not wanting. Take, for instance, the bridge over West Channel. It is not disputed, we understand, that this bridge was built according to the specifications;

the complaint is that it will not stand the test agreed upon.

It would seem that someone in authority should have known that this bridge would not stand the test. To say that the bridge company must have known it is begging the question, for the rule of caveat emptor applies to a city as well as to an individual. And if the board had no expert qualified to determine the sufficiency of the plans, it must have known of its lack of qualifications. Why then, did it not get an expert opinion before the contractor proceeded, rather than after the harm was done, as is the case? It seems that to have permitted this situation to arise, and to reject the structure after its completion and after the major portion of the price was paid upon information as easily obtainable before as after the expense was incurred, was something more deplorable than mere accident or misfortune.

Does not this incident suggest the need of a revision of our method of city government?

SUCH MEN ARE DANGEROUS

The latest is that Colonel Harvey asked Colonel Watterson to swat Colonel—no, Governor Wilson. This is the Kentuckian's version, one that admittedly fits badly with Colonel Harvey's letter to the New Jersey candidate assuring him that there are no hard feelings.

As to Colonel Watterson, it may be said that whatever the effect upon the political fortunes of Dr. Wilson, it has shown him (Watterson) to be neither statesman nor patriot. To him the question of suavity of manner was paramount, and the principle involved in taking money from those in the habit of buying legislation seems not to have been considered.

But, from the standpoint of such men as Mr. Ryan, the peremptory action of Dr. Wilson must indeed have sounded a warning. As Colonel Watterson admits, it showed that he could not be "handled;" it showed that where a principle was involved neither millionaires nor bourgeois publications could swerve him from his own conviction.

Such men are dangerous.

RULE MAY CAUSE STRIKE

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Baseball men today say the plan of President Charles Murphy to prohibit ball players from owning cafes is merely another play of the Chicago magnate to secure advertising. As nearly every one of the popular players in the big leagues is financially interested in a cafe which pays about as well as ball playing, baseball men believe there would be a strike of professional players if the national commission sought to enforce such a rule.

NO TRADE WITH CUBS

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Johnny Kling the gum shoe manager of the Boston Nationals, will get no opportunity to pull off a trade with the Cubs. Word was received by President Murphy from Manager Chance declaring that he would refuse to trade Reulbach or any other Cub player for any of the material Kling has placed on the market.

Isn't it surprising how little you know?

THEY INJURE CHILDREN

Cathartics and Pills and Harsh Physics May Cause Distressing Complaints

You cannot be over careful in the selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given. Ordinary pills, cathartics, and purgatives are too apt to do more harm than good. They sometimes cause griping, nausea and distressing after effects, and may actually injure the health, thus establishing a life-lasting annoyance.

We personally recommend and guarantee Rexall Orderlies as a safe and dependable remedy for constipation and associate bowel disorders. We have such faith in the virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee of money back in every instance, where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies not only relieve constipation, but help to remove the cause of this ailment. They also frequently overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition.

There is really, in our opinion, no similar medicine so good as Rexall Orderlies for the purpose to which it is directed, especially for children, aged and delicate persons. They are prepared in tablet form and in two sizes of packages: 12 tablets, 10c, 26 tablets, 25c, and 80 tablets, 50c. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Orderlies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, O. T. Erhart.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

A Broader View

I used to think the workingman a rather stupid chap. Who had a sneaking liking for a beer mug and a scrap; I used to think he was inclined to "soldier" when he could, But now I love the workingman and think him bravely good.

I used to think the farmer was an unenlightened clod. But nature fitted for no more than stirring up the sod; I used to think his worth was small, his manners unrefined, But now he has my warm regard, for I have changed my mind.

I used to think the hol polloi dull, arrogant and crass, I looked upon the man who had small schooling as an ass; I used to think the man who said "I done it" and "has come," As one who lacked intelligence and had no sense of shame.

But I have gained a broader view and now I understand, I'm happy in extending to the man who works my hand; The worst of men is he with sweat upon his brow; My friends are busy urging me to run for office now.

—Record-Herald.

Economy

"We women may not know some things, but we have some sense of business honor," said Mrs. Blithers. "Do you mean to tell me that we have no sense of business honor in public life now?" demanded Blithers.

"Well, my dear," said Mrs. Blithers, with a superior smile, "facts speak for themselves. Do you consider this businesslike. This paper says that 7000 bills were presented to Congress in the first nine daily sessions. I believe this paper is reliable."

"Perfectly," said Blithers; "but what of it? Suppose 20,000 bills were presented in that time?" "What of it? What of it?" cried Mrs. Blithers. "You surprise me, even if you are a man. Do you think it businesslike to have that number of bills, all in nine days, too?" Blithers scratched his head in perplexity.

"How would you women stop it?" he demanded.

"How would we stop it?" said Mrs. Blithers, scornfully. "Why, we wouldn't have any bills at all. We'd pay cash as we went along."—Lippincott's.

The Wife Beater's Plea

The tough looking citizen who had been sentenced to six months' imprisonment at hard labor for beating up his wife, appealed to the court with tears in his voice.

"Have a little pity, judge," he whimpered. "I speak to you as a man to man. If you send me up for a thing like that I'll never be able to maintain discipline in my family again!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Turning the Tables

Having done his best, by every fair and unfair methods during the last election to catch the candidate tripping, the heckler grew offensively personal.

"Is it true that your mother washes?" he began, but before he could add the word "clothes" the witty candidate called out smartly—"Of course, she does. Why, don't you?"

This raised a loud laugh at the heckler's expense; but, still undaunted, he returned to the attack.

"You can't deny," he said, "that your father was a rag-and-bone man. I bought some clothes of him thirty years ago."

"And I see you're still wearing them!" was the candidate's lightning retort.

There was no more heckling that night.—Tit-Bits.

A Medical Triumph

Dr. Simon G. Ruthven, the distinguished ophthalmologist of Little Rock, was asked by a journalist at a luncheon in New York about a certain sensational medical discovery.

"It all seems about as likely to me," said Dr. Ruthven, "as the case of the Pennsylvania student hurrying out Powellton avenue was stopped by a friend."

"What's your hurry?" asked the friend. "A good case?"

"A good case? Rather," said the student. "We've got in the ophthalmological ward a woman so cross-eyed that the tears run down her back."

"Dear me!" said the other. "You can't do anything for her, can you?"

"Of course we can," the student answered. "We are treating her for bacteria!"—New York Sun.

He Knew the Politicians

Jerome S. McWade, the millionaire collector, said at a political banquet in Duluth:

"I see by the papers that a lady high in official life recently set down her position as 'a servant's wife,' explaining that her husband was a servant of the people. Well, that reminds me."

Mr. McWade smiled. "That reminds me," he said, "of a stump speaker who shouted from his stump: 'We politicians are the slaves of the public!'"

"No wonder, then," growled a man in the front row, "that the whole world is in favor of slavery abolition!"—Washington Star.

If there is more than one syllable in a boy's given name, it is apt to be abbreviated when he starts to school.

THE CARPET FROM BAGDAD

Copyright 1911—The Bobbs-Merrill Co.

Again these specious arguments in favor of becoming the adventurer's abettor and accomplice, there was first the possible stain of blood. The man agreed that he had come away from Bagdad in doubt. George did not like the thought of blood. Still, he had collected a hundred emeralds, not one of which was without its red record. Again, if he carried the rug home with his other purchases, he could pull it through the customs only by lying which was as distasteful to his mind as being a receiver of stolen goods.

He had already paid a goodly sum against the purchase; and it was not likely that a man who was down to reversing his colors and cuffs would take back the rug and refund the money. The Yhordes was his, happen what might. So conscience snuffed out her red lantern and retired.

Some light steps, a rustle, and he wheeled in time to see a woman open a door, stand for a minute in the full light, and disappear. It was she. George opened the door of his own room, threw the rug inside, and tiptoed along the corridor, stopping for the briefest time to ascertain the number of that room. He felt vastly more guilty in performing this harmless act than in smothering his mentor.

There was no one in the head-porter's bureau; thus, unobserved and unembarrassed, he was free to inspect the guest-list. Fortune Chedsoye. He had never seen a name quite like that. Its quaintness did not suggest to him, as it had done to Ryanne, the pastoral, the bucolic. Rather it reminded him of the old French courts, of rapiers and buckles, of powdered wigs and furbelows, masks, astrologers, love-intrigues, of all those colorful, mutable scenes so charmingly described by the genial narrator of the exploits of D'Artagnan. And abruptly out of this age of Lebrun, Watteau, Moliere, reached an ice-cold hand. If that elderly codger wasn't her father, who was he and what?

The Major—for George had looked him up also—was in excellent trim for his age, something of a military dandy besides; but as the husband of so young and exquisite a creature! Out upon the thought! He might be her guardian, or, at most, her uncle, but never her husband. Yet (O poisonous doubt!) at the table she had ignored the Major, both his jests and his attentions. He had seen many wives, joyfully from a safe distance, act toward their husbands in this fashion. Oh, rot! If his name was Calahan and hers Chedsoye, they could not possibly be tied in any legal bonds. He dismissed the ice-cold hand and turned again to the comforting warmth of his ardoor.

He had never spoken to young women without presentation, and on these rare occasions he had broached the weather, suggested the possibilities of the weather, and concluded with an apostrophe on the weather at large. It was usually a valedictory. For he was always positive that he had acted like a fool, and was afraid to speak to the girl again. Never it failed, ten minutes after the girl was out of sight, the brightest and cleverest things crowded upon his tongue, to be but wasted on the desert air. He was not particularly afraid of women older than himself, more's the pity. And yet, had he been as shy toward them as toward the girls, there would have been no stolen Yhordes, no sad-eyed maiden, no such thing as The United Romance and Adventure Company, Ltd.; and he would have stepped the even tenor of his way, unknown of grand passions, swift adventure, life.

George was determined to meet Fortune Chedsoye, and this determination, the first of its kind to take form in his mind, gave him a novel sensation. He would find some way, and he vowed to best his old enemy, diffidence, if it was the last fight he ever put up. He would maneuver to get in the way of the Major. He never found much trouble in talking to men. Once he exchanged a word or two with the uncle or guardian, he would make it a point to renew the acquaintance when he saw the two together. It appeared to him as a bright idea, and he was rather proud of it.

The dark eyes of the Indian flashed. "The gentleman is an authority?" sarcastically.

"Upon that style of embroidery, absolutely," George smiled. And then, without more ado, he went on to explain the difference between the antique and the modern. "You have one good piece of old Bokhara, but it isn't rare. Twenty pounds would be a good price for it."

The Major laughed heartily. "And just this moment he asked a hundred for it. I'm not much of a hand in judging these things. I admire them, but have no intimate knowledge regarding their worth. Nothing tonight," he added to the bitter-eyed merchant. "The Oriental is like the amateur fisherman: truth is not in him. You seem to be a keen judge," as they moved away from the booth.

"I suppose it's because I'm inordinately fond of the things. I've really a good collection of Bokhara embroideries at home in New York."

"You live in New York?" with mild interest. The Major sat down and gracefully motioned for George to do the same. "I used to live there; twenty-odd years ago. But European travel spoils America; the rush there, the hurry, the clamor. Over here they dine, there they eat. There's as much difference between those two performances as there is between The Mikado and Florodora. From Portland in Maine to Portland in Oregon, the same dress, same shops, same ungodly high buildings. Here it is different, at the end of every hundred miles."

George agreed conditionally. The Major wasn't very original in his views. He would have shed his last drop of blood for his native land, but he was honest in acknowledging her faults.

Pianist Audience Saved

CHICAGO.—While the pianist played "Dixie" and the singer at a moving picture house warbled "My Country 'Tis of Thee," the audience which had broken into panic following a cry of "Fire," was restored to order.

Even now he was conscious of clenching his teeth strongly. It's an old saying that he goes farthest who shuts his teeth longest. He was going to test the precept by immediate practice.

He had stood before the list fully three minutes. Now he turned about face, a singular elation tinging his blood. Once he set his mind upon a thing, he went forward. He had lost many pleasurable things in life because he had doubted and faltered, not because he had reached out toward them and had them drawn back. He was going to meet Fortune Chedsoye; when or how were but details. And as he discovered the Major himself idling before the booth of the East Indian merchant, he saw in fancy the portcullis rise and the drawbridge fall to the castle of enchantment. He strolled over leisurely and pretended to be interested in the case containing mediocre jewels.

"This is a genuine Bokhara embroidery?" the Major was inquiring. "Oh, yes, sir."

"How old?"

The merchant picked up the tag and squinted at it. "It is between two and three hundred years old, sir."

To George's opinion the gods themselves could not have arranged a more propitious moment.

"You've made a mistake," he interposed quietly. "That is Bokhara, but the stitch is purely modern."

The dark eyes of the Indian flashed. "The gentleman is an authority?" sarcastically.

"Upon that style of embroidery, absolutely," George smiled. And then, without more ado, he went on to explain the difference between the antique and the modern. "You have one good piece of old Bokhara, but it isn't rare. Twenty pounds would be a good price for it."

The Major laughed heartily. "And just this moment he asked a hundred for it. I'm not much of a hand in judging these things. I admire them, but have no intimate knowledge regarding their worth. Nothing tonight," he added to the bitter-eyed merchant. "The Oriental is like the amateur fisherman: truth is not in him. You seem to be a keen judge," as they moved away from the booth.

"I suppose it's because I'm inordinately fond of the things. I've really a good collection of Bokhara embroideries at home in New York."

"You live in New York?" with mild interest. The Major sat down and gracefully motioned for George to do the same. "I used to live there; twenty-odd years ago. But European travel spoils America; the rush there, the hurry, the clamor. Over here they dine, there they eat. There's as much difference between those two performances as there is between The Mikado and Florodora. From Portland in Maine to Portland in Oregon, the same dress, same shops, same ungodly high buildings. Here it is different, at the end of every hundred miles."

George agreed conditionally. The Major wasn't very original in his views. He would have shed his last drop of blood for his native land, but he was honest in acknowledging her faults.

SIMPLICITY OF HAIR DRESSING NOW FASHIONABLE

Women Favor Parted Locks, Puffs, Pompadours, Coronet Braids Going Out

The present fashion of wearing the hair softly parted, without puffs and braids, demands a naturally fine head of hair, and women with thin, faded locks are at their wits' end to know how to make their hair look well. The first step toward this end is to keep hair and scalp in a healthy condition by the systematic use of a stimulating tonic.

HAY'S HAIR HEALTH contains all the health-giving ingredients needed by the starved hair roots. It destroys dandruff germs and encourages rapid growth of strong, new hair. Those hopelessly dry, faded looking locks grow soft, lustrous and youthful and the whole appearance is improved. You can get it at any druggist's for 50c, or $1.00 per bottle or from the Philo Hay Spec. Co., Newark, N. J.

Kubelik Is Injured! Nail File Slips

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Suffering slightly from shock and nervousness, is the bulletin issued by physicians of Jan Kubelik, world renowned violinist, who is incapacitated from giving his $1,500 farewell recital at Auditorium Saturday as the result of an attack, when, acting as his own manicurist, he pricked the skin of his left index finger with a nail file.

Theater managers, insurance agents, physicians and servants were thrown into consternation when Kubelik announced that he had injured himself terribly. Microscopic examination showed that a drop of the blood of the famous virtuoso had flowed from the wound. Despite this, his pulse is normal today and his heart action regular. The injured digit was carefully dressed.

Lloyd's agency of London, which has insured Kubelik's fingers for $235,000, was promptly notified that because of the injury it would have to make good the artist's $1,500 loss.

"It is terrible, such bungling work by myself," sighed Kubelik today. "I might have ruined my genius. I might have interfered with the development of music. Ah, what might not have happened with a nail file in the hands of me, Jan Kubelik."

RUSHFORD, MINN.

A wolf hunt, participated in by Oscar and Julian Larson, A. Tagland, C. L. Foss, A. Erickson, J. Medhaug and J. Arnold, was organized Sunday and a large prairie wolf rounded up near the Sandy McDonald farm.

Through the untiring efforts of the Rushford branch of the Minnesota Anti-Tuberculosis society, there will visit Rushford on March 8 and 9 an exhibit of the state board of health, showing the symptoms of the "white plague," the best means of preventing and remedying its assault and of preventing its spread. Rushford Red Cross society has labored earnestly for this exhibit, believing that, together with the lectures and explanatory talks delivered, there will result a more widespread interest in the work. The city has also, through the sale of Red Cross seals, won one of the six home vacuum cleaners donated by the McCormick-Howell company of New York, sales being made of 8,128 seals, which gives the city for the local Red Cross treasury $40.64, besides the prize. Much praise is due Prof. Sanford, Dr. Williams and Mr. G. E. Kirkpatrick, without whose steady perseverance and courage in overcoming many obstacles, little could have been accomplished by those who made a house to house canvass and sold the seals upon the streets and in the various places of business.

Miss Edna Rowan, general secretary of the Loyal Temperance Legion, was greeted by a good sized audience at the Rushford Presbyterian church last Thursday evening, where she delivered an intensely interesting lecture. Miss Rowan is an able and convincing speaker, whose winning personality has won her many friends in the city.

Th. M. W. A. having secured Mr. A. C. Petrie as speaker for the evening of February 6, at Woolman hall, extend a cordial invitation to the general public to attend. Mr. Petrie, who is field agent for the Society of the Friendless (Minnesota division), has visited the city before, having spoken at the Presbyterian church some months ago. The topic selected for next Wednesday's lecture will be "Life Behind the Bars."

Last week Mrs. Charles Green of this city received the sad news that a second cousin, Elmer Hanson, was killed in an accident near Mapleton, this state. Mr. Hanson, with his father and Rev. Father Culliton, were on their way to Good Thunder to attend church services, when the handcar which they were using as a means of transportation, was thrown off the track by a freight train which approached, unheard, from the rear. Father Culliton and the young man were killed instantly, the elder Hanson sustaining severe injuries. The Hansons were formerly from Houston.

James Dean of Vinegar Hill, who is district manager of the Yeoman lodge, was a Rushford caller this week.

Representative J. O. Rustad was in Rushford last Saturday.

While still a young boy, Reuben Hostved left Rushford with his mother and brother, to make their home in Northfield, this state. In that city Reuben completed the high school course and had commenced study at St. Olaf's college, when his health failed and being a confirmed invalid, was forced to abandon his ambition to become a missionary to China. He is now living at Bergen, Alta, Canada, and though unable to do any hard manual labor, has made and sold a great deal of fancy work, his latest achievement being a large silk spread, the pieces of which are so arranged that they form a map of China. The spread is to be sold to the highest bidder and the proceeds to be given to the poor in the Chinese empire.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Lutheran church at Highland on January 11, the contracting parties being Miss Cora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roe, and Mr. C. Hatfield of Lanesboro. The young couple will reside in Lanesboro, where the groom is employed.

Miss Sarah Mildred Willmer will give a public reading of "At the Sign of the Cross," at Nelson's Opera house Saturday evening, February 10. All lovers of good literature should embrace the opportunity of hearing her, as she comes well recommended from many larger cities.

Carl Sundby, one of the farmer owners of the Elite Picture show, will leave for his homestead in Canada soon, and for that reason he and

BACKACHE CAUSED BY KIDNEYS

Prescription to Prevent Serious Kidney Diseases—Lame Back and Urinary Troubles are the Danger Signals—What to Do—Mix It at Home—Splendid for Dyspepsia and Rheumatism.

More people succumb each year to some form of kidney trouble than any other cause. The slightest form of kidney derangement often develops into Bright's Disease, Kidney Disease, Diabetes or Dropsy. When either of these diseases are suspected, the sufferer should at once seek the best medical attention possible. Consult only a good, first-class physician.

There are many of the lesser symptoms of kidney trouble which can be treated at home, as stated by a well known authority. For some of these symptoms, such as backache, pain in the region of the kidneys, weak bladder, frequent urination, especially at night, painful, scalding urination, try the following simple home remedy: Fluid Extra Juniper Berries, one ounce; Compound Fluid Balmwort, one ounce; Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, four ounces. These simple ingredients are harmless and can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and anyone can mix them by shaking well in a bottle. The dose for adults is a teaspoonful before each meal and again at bed time.

There is no more effective remedy known to relieve all forms of dyspepsia and rheumatism, because it acts directly upon the kidneys and blood. It cleans the clogged up pores in the kidneys so they can filter and strain from the blood the poisonous uric acid and waste matter, which if not eliminated, remain in the blood decompose and settle about the joints and muscular tissues, causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

Backache is nature's signal notifying the sufferer that the kidneys are not acting properly. "Take care of your stomach and kidneys" is now the physician's advice to his patients.

his one-time partner, Edgar Egan, have sold out to Charles Nicholas.

The third number of the public school entertainment course will be given next week, being Miss Willmer's reading.

The Prohibition club of Highland met at the home of B. N. Shattuck on January 25. W. N. Warra gave a very entertaining talk and delegates were chosen to attend the prohibition banquet and conference to be held at Spring Valley the 12th inst. The next meeting will be at the home of H. C. Rose, February 8.

A flock of robins have wintered here, being found in the southern part of Rember Johnson's farm, near a spring which never freezes. Doubtless the birds are old ones which were unable to keep up with the younger ones when they set forth on their migration to the south last fall. Mr. L. P. Skaar is authority for the statement that the birds are there, as he has seen them several times while working upon the railroad track.

5,000 SOLDIERS TO BELFAST

BELFAST, Feb. 5.—That five thousand red coats, armed and equipped for fighting, will be on duty in Belfast next Friday, when First Lord of the Admiralty Winston Churchill makes his "home rule" speech, was shown this evening, when the Belfast park commission received an application from the lord mayor for permission to bivouac the troops in the city's parks. Ulsterites, opposing home rule, vow they will have fifty thousand armed men in the city on the occasion of Churchill's speech, and the war office is preparing to deal with an iron hand with any sign of an outbreak.

TO MANUFACTURE NEW AUTO GAUGE

Robert Henry, Herman Hans and Arthur Mowrey, who returned yesterday from a trip to Chicago, Milwaukee, Racine and South Bend, have made plans for the manufacture of a new gauge for use on the high priced automobiles. They got the idea for making the gauge while they were on their trip during the course of which they visited the automobile show at Chicago and also several factories. Although the gauge is at present more or less of an experiment it is felt certain that it will prove a success and that it will be used generally in the future.

S.S.S. FOR RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, which gradually gets into the circulation because of indigestion, constipation, weak kidney action, and other irregularities of the system which are sometimes considered of no importance. This uric acid causes an inflamed and irritated condition of the blood, and the circulation instead of nourishing the different portions of the body, continually deposits into the nerves, muscles, tissues and joints, the irritating, pain-producing acid with which it is filled. Rheumatism can only be cured by a thorough cleansing of the blood, and this is what S. S. S. does. It goes down into the circulation, and by neutralizing the uric acid and driving it from the blood, effectually and surely cures the cause. S. S. S. strengthens and invigorates the blood so that it is weak, sour stream, causing pain and agony throughout the system. It is an invigorating, nourishing fluid, furnishing health and energy to every part of the body and relieving the suffering caused by this S. S. S. being a purely vegetable blood purifier, is the surest and safest cure for Rheumatism in any of its forms. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

SPOTLIGHTS

Louise Gunning (The Princess Stephanie of Balaria) accompanied by her royal escort, a retinue of seventy-five, which includes the famous chorus of forty Balkan Beauties, is making a tour of America.

After reigning supreme in London for one year and at the Herald Square and Casino Theaters in New York for six months, "The Balkan Princess" is meeting with royal ovations in the principal cities of the United States. She will hold her first reception in this city on Thursday night, February 8th, and will sojourn at the La Crosse Theater. All of the comedians, comedienne and song birds who have been identified with her merry reign in the Metropolitan will be in attendance in regal raiment on this gala festival night at the La Crosse Theater.

Invitations, ranging in price from fifty cents to two dollars are now being issued at the box office.

One of the most pretentious offerings of the season will be presented at the La Crosse Theater on Saturday, Feb. 10, matinee and night when Harold MacGrath's popular novel, "The Goose Girl," dramatized by George D. Baker, will have its initial presentation.

Everyone has read this popular novel and given their sympathies first to the little goose-girl and then to the unfortunate Hildegard. The American consul and his war comrade, Hans Grumbach, the retired master-plumber, have our respects, the Grand Duke of Ehrenstein with his prime minister, and the mountaineer who assists Gretchen with her geese; the vintner who loves and is loved by our heroine, all make this the most interesting story that has ever been told in stagecraft.

MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMAN IN THE WORLD

MRS. C.D. GIBSON

OTTAWA—The selection by Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson of the ten most beautiful women in New York City led a representative of this paper to ask her husband, the famous illustrator, whom he considered the ten most beautiful women in the world. His answer marks Gibson as not only an illustrator but a diplomat. "I dare not," he replied. "I can, however, name one whom I know to be beautiful. She is Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson. I name her and no other because it puts me right at home. Consequently it puts me right with the other 44,999,999 beautiful women of the world." Mrs. Gibson was one of the beautiful Langborne girls of Virginia. One of her sisters is Mrs. Waldorf Astor.

SURELY BREAKS UP A BAD COLD

The most severe cold and Grippe misery will be relieved in just a few hours

It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken will cure Grippe or break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.

You distinctly feel the cold breaking and all the disagreeable grippe symptoms leaving after the very first dose. It promptly ends the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

NATIONAL GUARD TO BE VACCINATED

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 5.—The plan of inoculating the whole Wisconsin national guard with anti-phosphid vaccine is stirring up considerable opposition. Christian Scientists and others who have scruples against such measures have voiced objections in letters sent to Dr. M. P. Ravenel, director of the state hygienic laboratory, which has offered to vaccinate the militiamen free of charge. The vaccination will not be compulsory, however.

Adjutant General C. R. Boardman has sent a letter to the headquarters of all the state guardsmen explaining the beneficial intent of the plans. The adjutant general asked for the number of men in each command who are willing to be vaccinated, and requested that their examining surgeons assist in the vaccination as a patriotic service to the state free of charge, there being no funds that can be legally used to pay them.

It is said that the vaccination of the entire militia means that about 3,000 men will be immune from typhoid, while about 1,000 will be added to that number each year. More Wisconsin troops in the Spanish war died from typhoid than from all other causes combined.

GREEKS HELD FOR GIRL'S DOWNFALL MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 5.—Charged with contributing to the delinquency of 13-year-old Mary Rechlicz, ten Greeks charged with statutory offense, were arraigned in the district court today and remanded to jail in default of $5,000 bail in each case. At the same time George Brown and his wife, Julia, who occupied apartments in the Greek quarter were arrested charged with allowing the girl and the prisoners to frequent their rooms. The latter two furnished bail bonds of $1,000 and $200 respectively.

RENT CONVICTS TO KNITTING COMPANY MADISON, Wis., Feb. 5.—The state board of control has made a new contract for two years with the Paramount Knitting company for the employment of 300 convicts at the Wisconsin state prison, to expire the same day as a prior contract of three years for 200 men—January 1, 1914. A clause in the agreement provides that two-fifths of the convicts (200 men) may be withdrawn for employment on any state construction work, either at the prison or elsewhere.

TUBERCULIN TEST IS BEING MADE MADISON, Wis., Feb. 5.—In view of the fact that state compensation for tubercularized animals will cease on July 1, 1913, the state livestock sanitary board is now starting a systematic campaign to dispose of reactors in Wisconsin herds. County by county, agents of the board will test all herds, giving owners opportunity to take full advantage of the state's offer. The board has a plentiful supply of tuberculin on hand.

MILWAUKEE OFFERS EXHIBIT PRIZES MILWAUKEE, Feb. 5.—The Milwaukee Chamber of Commerce will offer prizes at the contest conducted by the La Crosse school of agriculture on Feb. 12 to Feb. 17. A committee was appointed at a special meeting of the board of directors held Friday, to select appropriate trophies to be given to the winners in the best exhibits of barley, oats and rye.

CUT IMPURE ICE MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 5.—Four employees of the Minnesota Ice company are under arrest today charged with cutting ice in the Mississippi river without a permit. The arrests were ordered by Superintendent of Police Michael Mealey after Dr. Corbett, city bacteriologist, had tested the river ice and found it impure.

JURY DISAGREES IN DYNAMITE CASE LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 5.—The jury trying Bert H. Connors for an alleged attempt to dynamite the county hall of records reported on Saturday that it was still unable to agree. The jurors stood, as they did on the first ballot on Friday—10 to 2—and the foreman informed the court that there was no hope for an agreement. Judge Willis intimated that on the request of attorneys both for the state and the defense he might have the jury knocked up until Monday. Assistant District Attorney Ray Horton, who prosecuted Connors, told the court a verdict either way was to be preferred to a hung jury and attorneys Leconte Davis and Horace Appel, counsel for the prisoner, agreed with him.

START CLASS IN FIRST AID

What to Do in Cases of Emergency to Be Taught in Course at the Y. W. C. A.

The first class of the new course in "First Aid to the Injured" to be given at the Y. W. C. A. will be held on Monday evening. Dr. Sarah Nimocks is in charge of the class.

This course offered for the first time at the association, will no doubt appeal to a large number of people, since anyone may suddenly be called upon to help in cases of asphyxiation, poisoning, drowning, burning, fractures, dislocations, sprains and other accidents and without previous study of the remedies to be applied are not only useless but also dangerous.

The ten lessons will be divided as follows: 1. Principles of First Aid, object of course, structure of the body, skeleton, muscles.

2. First Aid Materials: Bandages, splints, tourniquets, absorbent cotton, adhesive plaster, stimulants, emetics.

3. Fractures, strains, sprains, dislocations, gymnasium and field accidents. Application of splints and bandages.

4. Circulation of the blood, hemorrhage and wounds, internal hemorrhage, bleeding from nose and lungs. Application of tourniquet.

5. Respiration, choking, croup, asphyxiation and smothering, asphyxiation, artificial respiration.

6. Brain and nervous system, unconsciousness from different causes, hysterical attacks, convulsions, fits, sunstroke, heartstroke, lightning stroke. Emergency treatment of each.

7. Common emergencies: Swallowing of poisons, burns, scalds. How to act when clothing takes fire. Acute indigestion, vomiting, constipation, diarrhoea, colic, cramp, chill from exposure, application of external dressings and use of internal remedies.

8. Emergencies connected with summer outings. Foreign bodies in the eye, ear or nose, stings and bites of insects, poisons from plants or animals, drowning, restoration of those apparently drowned.

9. Preparation for accident cases, means of lifting and carrying, preparation of bed, removing of clothes, preparation for surgeon.

10. Sick room: Warming and ventilation, contagious diseases, disinfection, feeding, baths, etc. The clinical thermometer, pulse, respiration.

The course will be a practical one, students taking part in each lesson. An examination will be held in May in both theoretical and practical work and successful candidates will be awarded a certificate issued jointly by the National Board of the Young Women's Christian association and the American Red Cross association.

Further particulars in regard to the course can be secured by telephoning to the association.

REBELS REFUSE TO STAY PUT

Mexican Mutineers Led
from Juarez by Orozco,
After Being Pacified,
Desert Again

EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 5.—The rebellious soldiers of the Juarez garrison, who were taken in a body on a special train late yesterday enroute to Chihuahua by General Pascual Orozco, are returning to Juarez today in squads of ten and twelve. The soldiers slipped away from the train whenever it slowed up, and over a score had returned this morning.
Juarez is now under the control of Santiago Maestas, the mayor named by the mutineers, and the chief of police, Rafael Campa, has been restored to his office.

Street cars are again running into Juarez from El Paso, and frightened refugees are returning to their homes.

Nearly 1,000 Mexican federal soldiers will arrive in Juarez before noon to make complete the restoration of the control of the Madero government over that city.

Following the visit Saturday night of General Pascual Orozco, order was restored in the border city and the members of the garrison who had mutinied agreed to accompany the general back to Chihuahua. They will be made a part of the federal force defending that city.

Although the situation at Juarez appears to have cleared, there is trouble in sight at Casas Grande.
There the garrison has mutinied and is in complete control.

U. S. Troops Ready
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—With all military preparations for intervention in Mexico completed, the state department today anxiously awaited assurances from President Madero that his administration is able to protect all interests and put down
the revolution.

Unless this assurance is forthcoming and unless the situation in northern Mexico changes for the better, American troops will undoubtedly be ordered over the border. An answer to the note sent through the American ambassador in Mexico City, protesting against the destruction of American property and the mistreatment of American citizens is expected within forty-eight hours.

JOHNSON TO RUN FOR DAHL'S PLACE

Henry Johnson, assistant state treasurer under A. H. Dahl and former assemblyman from Oconto,
will be a candidate for the nomination as state treasurer at the primary election. This fact was announced in a letter received by one of the leading progressive republicans of La Crosse this morning.

Mr. Johnson is the second to enter what is said will be a big field of candidates for the position, in the race for which Mr. Dahl will cease to be a factor when he becomes a candidate for congress
from this district.

State Senator Henry Kromrey of Plymouth, chairman of the republican state central committee, was the first to announce his candidacy for the nomination. Senator Krom-rey is one of the foremost progressives of the state, and has received the endorsement of many of the leading politicians. Mr. Johnson has many friends in the party, however,
and it is predicted that a warm fight will be made for the nomination.

A. F. OF L. OFFER AID TO MILL STRIKERS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Aid was offered the Lawrence strikers today
by the American Federation of Labor. Secretary Morrison of the federation, extended an invitation for the mill workers to join the ranks of organized labor and declared that the federation was "always ready and willing to assist wage workers, organized or unorganized, to secure improved conditions." Morrison tributed the strike to lack of leadership and wisdom on the part of the workers and declared that such conditions of unrest, suffering and misery "were closely related to non-unionism."

Rabat Rugs and Carpets.
The best carpets are made at Rabat
and have some similarity in appearance to Smyrna rugs, but in the former the wool and warp are of a much looser composition and of a somewhat lighter body. The predominating color of Rabat rugs is red and the patterns are sometimes ingeniously geometrical, but the colors, although frequently exhibiting beautiful blends, are often of a more hectic cast than is pleasing to the most exacting European taste.

Price of Health.
To judge by letters received from correspondents, the average person does not really want to be cured. He only wants relief, which is quite a different thing. Or, at least, if he wants to be cured, he is seldom willing to pay the price—not in money, that is trifling, but the price in patience and perseverance and self-control.—

Once Quite Enough.
"Did you ever," said one preacher to another, "stand at the door after your sermon and listen to what people said about it as they passed out?"
Replied he: "I did once—a pause
and a sigh—"but I'll never do it again."

ILL HEALTH IS THE REASON FOR THE PROPOSED ACTION

the race, in spite of the nervous collapse which has interrupted his campaign. He is planning to start early in April, after taking a two months rest, with a western speaking tour.
Meantime he will rest. For two weeks he will remain in Washington, living quietly at his home here with his family and keeping away from politics. Then he will probably take a six weeks' sea voyage to southern Europe.

La Follette desires to minimize his illness, as he takes the position that "the public has little use for a sick man on the platform."
"Complete rest is all the senator needs," said his secretary, John Hannan today. "He will soon be himself again."

Will Turn to T. R.
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 5. — If Senator La Follette withdraws from the presidential race, it will mean that the Progressive Republican league of Ohio, of which John D.
Fackler of Cleveland is chairman,
will immediately swing into line for Col. Roosevelt.

Fackler was in Washington yesterday and was in conference with La Follette supporters at which it was proposed that La Follette withdraw.

Chairman Fackler gave out a signed statement today.
"If Senator La Follette's illness necessitates his withdrawal from the presidential race, it will bring sincere sorrow to thousands of his devoted friends and followers in Ohio, who are willing to support him regardless of the probability of success by reason of his well known and constant devotion to progressive principles," says the statement.

"Fortunately, the republican party has another conspicuous and able leader to whom it can turn,
and I believe that Col. Roosevelt should be drafted into the service.
I know he is in no way a seeker
after further honors, but I do believe he will not refuse the call of the people for further service."

ONALASKA PICKLE WORKS WON'T MOVE

A report today that the Onalaska Pickle and Canning company was contemplating the building of a factory at Black River Falls similar to the one at Onalaska was denied by officials of the company who say that the receiving station which is located in that town is to be enlarged.

The enlarging of the Black River Falls receiving station was made imperative because of the fact that great quantities of pickles are received and kept there and also because the business done by the concern is increasing rapidly. The largest stock of pickles kept anywhere by this concern is kept at Black River Falls,
where the company has a large store house. There is no danger whatever that the Onalaska factory will be moved to Black River Falls, say the officials of the company.

TONG WAR HALTS AT LEADER'S DEATH

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 5.—
The truce which was observed by all Chinese Tongues during the funeral yesterday of Wong Yue, millionaire
head of the powerful Wong family, ended today and the Tong men in Portland, San Francisco and San Jose
are preparing to continue the war.
Conferences were held by the chief men of the Hop Sing, Suey Sing and Sen Suey Ng Tong today and raids
by gunmen are expected to be resumed at any time. Business in Chinatown has been seriously crippled
by the war. The quarter swarmed with police today, prepared to arrest any Chinese threatening disorder.

COMMITTEES TO MEET

QUESTION OF BRICK PAVING IN FRONT OF LUTHERAN HOS-PITAL WILL BE DIS-CUSSED

The question of whether a brick pavement will be laid on the Mormon Collee road between Eighth and Ninth streets this year will come up for discussion before the special council committee on street improvements which will meet at the city hall tonight. The block in question is the one in front of the Lutheran hospital and has been in poor condition for several years. It is probable that the committee will vote in favor of the improvement. The matter of fixing the city health officer's salary will come up before the committee on health and finance
which also meets tonight.

The committees on finance, streets and alleys, bridges and grounds and buildings will meet tomorrow night
to consider several matters that were referred at the last council meeting.
The committees on judiciary and finance will meet Wednesday afternoon.
It is understood that the West Channel bridge controversy will be taken up with a view to find, if possible, some means of compromise with the construction company.

dren, his wife and son Albert, were brought to the Lutheran hospital,
this city, yesterday. Ole Ambrosen's condition is such that little hope is held out for his recovery. Mrs. Ambrosen and Albert, although severely burned and the latter cut and bruised, will recover. Marie with her two little brothers, Helmar and Adolph,
are at the hospital watching the outcome of their father's fight for life.

PNEUMONIA FATAL TO MRS. WITZKE

Mrs. Caroline Witzke, aged 81 years, 1560 La Crosse street, died of pneumonia last evening at 6:00 o'clock after an illness of six weeks.
She was born in Germany March 9, 1830, and she has resided in La Crosse since 1888.

Surviving her are two daughters,
Mrs. August Streck and Mrs. Wm.
Wentzlaff, and one son, August Witzke, of La Crosse.

The funeral will be held Wednesday from the house at 2 o'clock and from the German Lutheran church at 2:30, with Rev. J. Gamm officiating at the services. Interment will be made in Oak Grove cemetery. Fessler & Dahl are in charge of the funeral arrangements.

C. D. SHEFFER'S BROTHER IS DEAD

G. D. Sheffer, 1719 Market street, received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of his brother,
Harry R. Sheffer, at Warren, Ariz.
Mr. Harry Sheffer has been located in the west for the last two years previous to which time he was carrier for the C. & N. W. railroad company in this city. The remains will arrive at Sparta the latter part of the week.

He is a wise man who can tell what a woman thinks by what she says.

SOCIALISTS WANT FURTHER PROBING

Declare They Are Not Satisfied with Commissioners' Statement of Innocence

The communication which was sent to Circuit Judge E. C. Higbee
by the social democrats of La Crosse, asserting that they are not satisfied with the mere statement of the jury commissioners denying the charges of having shown discrimination against the laboring class, and demanding a thorough investigation,
is as follows:

Hon. E. C. Higbee,
Judge of the Circuit Court.
In a published report in the public press, you are quoted as stating that you would make no direct reply to the request of the Social Democratic party for an investigation into conditions alleged to exist regarding the drawing of jurors.

We therefore respectfully submit to you the following: The Social Democratic party beg to acknowledge the dignified judicial spirit shown in your communication to the jury commissioners in regard to the request of the Social Democratic party
for a fair representation of wage earners on juries. We respectfully call your Honor's attention to the fact that the Social Democratic party is not a one man organization, but a regularly organized branch of the Socialist party of America, polling
over five hundred votes in the city of La Crosse, a growing party of working men seeking peacefully and intelligently to perpetuate a government of the people, for the people and by the people.

Our purpose is to use every peaceful means for the solution of present economic and political problems
at the ballot box, and we believe that our courts are our most sacred institutions, and it is the duty of every citizen to guard them jealously and to do all we can personally and collectively to maintain their purity and dignity. We respectfully state to your Honor that the socialists do not seek class hatred and war, but peace, harmony and co-operation; we believe that only by calm reasoning can men progress and courts are necessary for a rule of reason, for
"in reason is law" as Blackstone so aptly put it and socialism is simply a sane and peaceful rule of reason.
We would also call your consideration to Section 2533c of Wisconsin
Revised Statutes which says
"whenever the list of names furnished any such court shall have been depleted the commissioners shall supply other names so that there shall not be less than 150 nor more than 500 names in the box at the time any drawing of jurors takes place." Three members of a committee assigned to investigate the list of the jury commissioners find that list to exceed five hundred names; thus the jury which was drawn for the present session, was not drawn according to law.

We further submit to you the fact that census reports show that 87
per cent of our people are workers,
and that a proportionate number of wage earners names placed in the jury commissioner's box is more than 33 1/3 per cent as stated by the jury commissioner's report, and this number would more nearly lead to trial by a jury of peers. And we further to state that your Honor may have been misled in regard to the report that workers have been on past juries. The jury now in service is composed of 17 businessmen, 4
farmers and ten men who can be termed workers by liberal construction, and this does not at all balance out the proportion of workers in La Crosse county, as expressed in our resolution.

Now as to the investigation of the jury commissioners. You have written them a letter prior to any investigation, in which you give your opinion, quoting your language you say "that the charges are baseless, yet I believe the public is entitled to have a statement from you concerning the matter." You ask for a mere statement, not an investigation
as requested by the Social Democratic party, in your letter, which in its tone suggests a prejudice that does not seem to carry with it a calm, temperate and dignified impariality which impels toward a fair and reasonable verdict on this matter.
You do accord to them a perfect trial
by a jury of peers, virtually instructing them to act as prosecutor, court and jury in their own defense, and further, virtually, charging them
what their verdict shall be, and while this may be a satisfactory method to some accused, it may not lead to social justice. The court would hardly feel it just to let all lawbreakers try themselves, or even honest working men, and we suggest that law should be no respecter of race, color, sex, rank or condition of servitude.

Therefore, the Social Democratic party respectfully submit that the people of the county of La Crosse be accorded the thorough investigation called for in the resolution of that party.

Dated this 31st day of Jan. 1912
Branch No. 1, SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF CROSSE, Wis.

J. J. Verchota, Chairman.
John Bates, Jr., Secretary.

MRS. CANE IS DEAD

body was sent to Winona this noon

tomorrow.

HAVE PHOTOS OF DESTROYED BOOKS

Government Will Introduce Pictures as Evidence Against Beef Barons This Week

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—The government sprang a surprise in its prosecution of the Beef trust magnates
when it announced at the resumption of the trial before Judge Carpenter
that it would offer photographic reproductions of scores of books and other documents which it is alleged were destroyed by the packers following the probe of the alleged beef
combine by the grand jury.

The government relies upon this photographic evidence to furnish the link that will connect the ten defendants with the alleged criminal price agreements and interchange of information among their companies.

This evidence will probably be offered this week as soon as the examination of Isadore Snyder, the National's branch manager, and several other agents for this concern is completed.

District Attorney Wilkerson and his associates in the prosecution held an all day conference yesterday at which a course of action during the presentation of the remainder of the government's case was agreed upon.
It is alleged that by documentary proof involving meetings of the directors of the National Packing company during which the defendants conferred over price and shipment reports from all the companies, will be submitted. This is expected, according to the government's contention, to make each defendant a party to the "conspiracy."

CHICAGO FIGHTS $500,000 BLAZE

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—A spectacular fire which started at 1 a. m. and was still burning fiercely at eight o'clock
today, had destroyed three buildings of the Northern Malt company's plant in the northwestern part of the city and was rapidly consuming a large brewery, also part of the company's property. A general alarm called 35 engines and two fireboats to fight the flames. Two elevator buildings that were destroyed were loaded with grain. A series of explosions followed by falling walls caused many exciting scenes and perilous rescues. Half a dozen firemen were seriously injured.

Several firemen were standing on the wall of one elevator pouring water into an adjoining elevator when without warning the walls exploded and tore out the wall of which they were standing. They were saved only by clinging to protruding beams as thousands of bushels of grain beneath them was released and tumbled into the river. Thomas Doherthy, a watchman, was saved only when the firemen cut through a sheet iron wall and dragged him out
a moment before an explosion covered the place with burning wreckage.

POOL ROOM MEN UNDER ARREST

Arrested on a charge of allowing minors to play pool in their pool rooms, George Chresand, 329 Main street and James Kanellos, 112 North Fourth street, were arraigned before Police Justice Edward Cronon this morning and entered a plea of not guilty. Owing to the fact that some of the witnesses in the case are school boys and could not appear today, the case was set for trial on Wednesday afternoon at 4:30. The arrests were made Saturday night.

MRS. LUPIE DIES IN BROWNSVILLE

Mrs. Bridget Lupi, aged 73 years, died of a complication of diseases at her home in Brownsville, Minn., yesterday morning.

She was born in Ireland on February 2, 1839, and she had lived in Brownsville for many years. Surviving her are three daughters.

The funeral will be held from St.
Patrick's Catholic church at Brownsville tomorrow morning at ten o'clock and interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

TRIBUNE'S BEN TAKES THE PRIZE

Harry Dally's Ben, who has been amusing the La Crosse public in The Tribune cartoons, made his debut before local society at the masked ball
given by the Concordia Aid society Saturday, J. Harget is the man who got the idea of impersonating Ben and who carried it out with success. In fact there was such a great resemblance in Harget's make-up and the original baseball bug
of The Tribune that when it came to awarding the prizes
the other male comics were "backed off the boards." Miss Ida Hoppe took the ladies'
prize in this department.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TONIGHT

No Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipated Bowels by Morning

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion,
the sick, sour stomach and foul gases
—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10 cent box from any drug store means a clear
head and cheerfulness for months.
Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe
or sicken.

MRS. EVA AHAK, OLD RESIDENT, IS DEAD

Mrs. Eva Ahak, 1523 South Seventh street, died of pneumonia at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She had been a resident of La Crosse
for many years.

She is survived by her husband,
sixty daughters and one son.

The funeral will be held at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning from the residence and at 9 o'clock from the St. Wenceslaus church, with Rev. X. Till officiating at the services. Burial will be made in the Catholics cemetery. Fessler & Dahl are in charge of the funeral arrangements.

CARL GROTHE'S EXPERIENCE

WELL KNOWN GROCER AS-TOUNDED AT MIRACLE PER-FORMED UPON HIM.

WAS ABSOLUTELY HELPLESS
Could Not Walk, Could Not Feed Himself, but Is Now Emancipated from the Disease that Possessed Him.

Peoria Star: Carl Grothe, the widely known grocer of 720 Sixth avenue, was down town yesterday
for the first time in many months.
And thereby hangs a story as wonderful as the "Arabian Nights" or any fiction ever written. Mr.
Grothe has been suffering from inflammatory rheumatism for a long time and became so badly afflicted that he could not move hand or foot. He could not even feed himself and could only lie in bed and moan and bewail his fate. Not a very pleasant condition, you will say. Imagine the fact that you had tried about every means of recovery and had failed. This is exactly what happened to the subject of this sketch and he was about ready to give up hope and resign himself to fate. But one day not long ago,

a well known business man, and a friend, dropped into see Mr. Grothe.
He was told that ordinary remedies
had not brought about the much desired end. He suggested the Minnesota Boy Healer be tried. This
Mr. Grothe was loath to do, since he had little faith that anything could prove of benefit. He was finally persuaded, somewhat against his belief, to try Mr. Gallagher, better known as The Minnesota Boy Healer. The first treatment gave instant relief and at the end of one week he was able to walk and was down town. This sounds almost beyond belief, but Mr. Grothe himself will be glad to verify it to any of his friends. He gives all the credit to Mr. Gallagher for this state of health and is himself amazed at the outcome. It is truly a wonderful story and proves again that fact is stronger than fiction. Mr. Grothe can be seen at his business house and will cheerfully tell others what the Boy
Healer did for him.

This Healer is located at 514 1/2
State street, La Crosse, and can be consulted daily. He cures by laying on of hands entirely, using neither application or drugs.

Grain Letter
CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Despite cable advices and a continuation of the general conditions that caused a big upward movement in grain prices last week, there was a heavy dip in the market today owing to an extended campaign of profit taking.

The warning of conservative brokers Saturday that the bull operations had been overdone, led to a scramble to take profits. Wheat and corn futures opened with a jump of about half from Saturday's close, but the prices did not hold and all were soon below the highest levels of last week.

Shorts had generally cleared the corn market Saturday and an attack upon the market was started soon after the opening today. The demand for cash corn was not as urgent as last week, but the cold wave was used as a bull argument.

Oats started high, but these prices broke in sympathy with a general movement to lower levels in other grains. The movement of this grain is exceedingly small, and local traders who had held their commitments over a long upward haul were inclined to sell.

Provisions were firm on a small run of hogs at the yards and steadier prices.

Growth of St. Petersburg.
That St. Petersburg is rapidly growing in population is evidenced by the census taken in December, 1910, which showed the population, including certain suburban villages formerly not covered, to be 1,907,708. It is pre-eminently an "office town" and also a seaport for six or eight months of the year.

The principal industry is the manufacture of cotton textiles, although its advantage as a port of entry for the interior is gaining recognition. A line of steamers has been established to Libau, connecting there with a trans-Atlantic line to New York. This enables American shippers to send goods direct to this port without the delays of transshipment in foreign ports.

Wit of Augustus Thomas.
"The trouble with amateur carriers," said Mr. Thomas, on one occasion, "is that the gravity so rarely matches the wall paper." A fatuous argument he characterized as "like a chorus girl's tights, which touch every point and cover nothing." When Mr. Thomas was rehearsing "The Witching Hour," one of the management stopped the players, and, turning to the author, remarked: "I think this would be a good place for some witty dialogue."

"Yes," replied Mr. Thomas. "As for instance"—Channing Pollock in "The Footlights—Fore and Aft."

Stopped Waste of Water.
Water-waste detection has been made a science by the present city engineer of London. By its application he has reduced the daily consumption ten gallons per head of population. This saving is simply enormous. In East London alone it is enough water to meet the wants of a city of 400,000 inhabitants.

HUSBAND KILLS
MAN WITH WIFERailroader Finds Friend
with Wife and Slays Him; Called Home
by Friend

IRONTON, Ohio, Feb. 5.—Having witnessed alone the murder of her friend at the hands of her husband, Mrs. Robert Brown, wife of a railroader, is said to be suffering from severe nervous shock. Brown gave himself up immediately after the killing of Charles Davis, 45, in the Brown home Friday night, and was jailed. Brown was at work in the yards of the Norfolk & Western railroad when called to a telephone by a friend and informed that Davis was seen to enter the Brown home. Brown returned to his house, arriving there unexpectedly and in a fight that followed Davis was stabbed in the head and killed. Brown said he acted in self defense.

Davis was married and a railroad brakeman. Brown is 44 years old and his wife young and of attractive appearance.

GOY MR. "M'GOY"
GROWS BOLDERJohn J. McCaughey Decides to Run Against Anderson; Sidestep-
ped Tawney Race

ST. PAUL, Feb. 5.—John J. McCaughey (pronounced McCoy) of Kasson, Dodge county, has filed as a candidate for the republican nomination for the house of representatives in the First district. He will oppose Sydney Anderson, the present incumbent.

Mr. McCaughey retired two years ago after having been county attorney of Dodge county for twelve years. When the opponents of Representative Tawney were casting about for a candidate two years ago Mr. McCaughey was one of several that were urged to get into the race. He decided to keep out of it. Mr. Anderson evidently looks easier to him now than Mr. Tawney did.

The filing was the first for the house of representatives of any this year and the first definite opposition to any of the present Minnesota representatives. Mr. McCaughey probably was encouraged to get into the race by the action of the progressive

PRICES VARIED
WITH DISTRICTSPackers Charged Less for Meat in Territory where Independents Competed

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—That the "beef trust" lowered its prices in territory where it came into competition with independent houses was shown in the trial of the packers before Federal Judge Carpenter, when the record of an exchange of telegrams between the managers of the Boston branch of the National Packing company and the local officials was read into evidence.

The first telegram identified by Isadore Snyder, assistant manager at the Boston branch was sent from Chicago by Munneke. It said: "Cannot understand why we are not doing better at Lowell. It looks like we are the goat."

Snyder testified that he received this telegram and communicated it to a selling agent in that territory by the name of Phillips. Phillips replied in a code telegram saying that conditions were very bad and that the National was being undersold by the independents.

It concluded with the words: "We must have lower costs."

He indicated that meats had been sold in that territory at 57 cents per hundred weight below the price fixed in the test cost table. Reports from other packinghouse branch managers showed that they were also selling far below the test cost prices in the Lowell territory.

ST. LOUIS VOTES
TWO BOTTLES EACH

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Two bottles of beer was quoted as the price of a vote in the "brewery district" of St. Louis when Charles J. Maurer, a democrat, appeared before the house committee on elections to contest the election of Representative Bartholdt, (Rep., Mo.)

Bartholdt and his counsel, E. W. Forsitel, stoutly denied Maurer's charges.

"I was elected by approximately 25,000 votes," said Bartholdt. "Throw out every fraudulent vote claimed and you will not reduce my majority by more than 220 votes."

BEAUTIFUL HAIR
AT SMALL COSTA Simple Remedy Beautifies the Hair. Cures Dandruff, Stops
Falling Hair

What a pity it is to see so many people with thin, wispy hair, faded or streaked with gray, and realize that most of these people might have soft, glossy, abundant hair of beautiful color and lustre if they would but use the proper treatment. There is no necessity for gray hair under sixty-five years of age, and there is no excuse for anyone, young or old, having thin, straggling hair, either full of dandruff or heavy and rank smelling with excessive oil.

You can bring back the natural color of your hair in a few days and forever rid yourself of any dandruff and loose hairs, and make your hair grow strong and beautiful by using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. For generations common garden Sage has been used for restoring and preserving the color of the hair; and Sulphur is recognized by Scalp Specialists as being excellent for treatment of hair and scalp troubles.

If you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, or if you hair is losing its color or coming out, get a fifty-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and notice the improvement in the appearance of your hair after a few days' treatment.

ST. LOUIS VOTES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Two bottles of beer was quoted as the price of a vote in the "brewery district" of St. Louis when Charles J. Maurer, a democrat, appeared before the house committee on elections to contest the election of Representative Bartholdt, (Rep., Mo.)

Bartholdt and his counsel, E. W. Forsitel, stoutly denied Maurer's charges.

CLEVER JAP WIRE WALKERS

Japanese Wire Artists and Tyrolean Yodlers, with an Irish Playlet, Are Rest of Bill

The great big bear, and the middle sized bear, and the little wee bear, familiar figures of the nursery books, in company with other bears of various assorted sizes and dispositions, are at the Majestic as the feature attraction this week. The bears show an aptitude for training that seems remarkable, so stupid and grouchy do they look. The antics of one small bear in particular kept the audience laughing. The little fellow walked all about the stage on his hind legs following the trainer, with his mouth open for the lumps of sugar that dropped into it occasionally. What is claimed by the trainer to be the only trained ant eater in captivity is also a member of the company.

Davis and Scott have an act that aims to amuse, and succeeds excellently. It is comedy from start to finish of a new and original type. It "got" the audience, and kept them in a gale of laughter practically all the time.

One of the features of the bill is the tight and slack wire walking of two Japanese, Yamamoto brothers. It is an exhibition of equilibrium and skill that is seldom equalled, and the close of the act, with one Jap standing on his hands up among the files at the top of a long pole balanced on the shoulder of his partner, is thrilling in the extreme.

Then there are Rudolph and Lena, Rudolph and Lena are Tyrolean singers, whistlers, yodlers and dancers. Half of their songs are sung in German, and the other half in English with a German accent. The act is a decided originality for La Crosse. Both have splendid voices, which are well handled, and the act is made distinctive with the costumes of the Fatherland.

Captain Barry is an Irish one act sketch, dealing with the life of a robber chief, which is staged by Daniel J. Sullivan and a company of capable actors. Sullivan, as Captain Barry, is the whole show, his excellent voice adding much to the part.

TOMAH, WIS.

Mrs. Ursula Johnson, wife of the late Andrew Johnson, who died the 31st day of June last year, died at her home on Kilbourn avenue of pneumonia after an illness of over a month. Deceased was born in New York state and was seventy-two years old. The remains will be taken to Plainville where they were buried on Friday, February 2.

The Civic club and numerous guests celebrated "Peace Day" on Thursday afternoon by securing Louis P. Lochner of the University of Wisconsin Extension department. Mr. Lochner delivered an address on "Woman's Work for Peace." It was enjoyed by all present and it is hoped that they can secure Mr. Lochner for another lecture in the future.

The date for the quadrangular debate between La Crosse, Sparta, Viroqua and Tomah high schools has been set to take place Friday, Feb. 23. The question being on "Commission Government." The schedule is as follows: Tomah affirmative and Sparta negative at Tomah; Tomah negative and Viroqua affirmative at Viroqua; La Crosse affirmative, Viroqua negative at La Crosse; La Crosse negative and Sparta affirmative at Sparta. This debate is looked on as being very interesting and the Tomah debaters are working diligently.

It has been stated that the annual firemen's dance will take place February 8th at the Armory.

The firm of Elsen and Phillips of La Crosse have started an agency here with W. E. Barnhart selling E. M. F. cars. Mr. Barnhart has three cars on exhibition at Strombeck's garage.

The high school basketball schedule has just been given out, although there are a number of open dates left. Following is the schedule: Feb. 9, Hillsboro vs. Tomah at Hillsboro; Feb. 16, Hillsboro vs. Tomah at Tomah; Feb. 22, Portage vs. Tomah at Tomah; March 2, Mauston vs. Tomah at Mauston; March 8, Mondovi vs. Tomah at Mondovi; March 22, Mondovi vs. Tomah at Tomah.

A number of farmers in this vicinity are taking advantage of the short course in agriculture at the state university in Madison. Among them are William Kirst, Frank Rehberg and Mr. Edward May.

The Civic club offered to the pupils in high school three prizes for the best essay on "Conservation." The first prize will be $6; second $2 and third $1.

Miss Grace Cassels left recently to attend Stevens Point normal for a short time.

Ice in this portion of the country is plentiful, the harvest has been going on for over a month. Nearly all the ice houses are filled to their capacity and a few dealers are contemplating on shipping several cars. There is no possibility of an ice famine in this city this summer.

Mr. Edward Walker, a former Tomah man, who now resides in Idaho, is visiting friends and relatives here. The firemen expect to install club rooms with pool and billiard tables in a month in the hall.

SAYS PEOPLE DISLIKE TAFT

Would Rather Vote for a Democrat than Taft, He Declares; Acclaims
Teddy Party Hope

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 5.—That Roosevelt will yield to the "genuine popular demand for his leadership" and accept the republican presidential nomination, is the flat assertion made by Republican State Chairman Walter F. Brown, in a signed statement issued at the state Roosevelt headquarters. The statement is in part as follows:

"The active organization in Ohio, which is already numbered by thousands, pledged to effect the nomination and election of Roosevelt as president in 1912, is actuated by no motives of hostility to the president whom the members of that organization, generally speaking, respect and esteem personally.

"The Roosevelt movement in Ohio and indeed throughout the country, rests upon three propositions. First, that the people of the United States have decided to select some other than Mr. Taft to the presidency. Second, that republicans who place party above personal considerations will not compel the people of the United States, in order to make a change in the presidency to make a change in the party in control of the national government. Third, that the man most available as republican standard bearer by reason of the abiding confidence of the masses in his wisdom and patriotism, is Theodore Roosevelt.

Colonel Will Yield

"It can be accepted beyond question whatever, that Colonel Roosevelt, though in no sense seeking the republican nomination, will yield to the genius popular demand for his leadership which is being voiced throughout the country; that he will accept a nomination which comes as the result of such a genuine popular demand and that he will make a characteristic and winning fight at the election in November."

Stop a Cold
Almost Instantly

The speed with which colds or la grippe are conquered by Pinex Cold Tablets will surprise you. Two doses give wonderful relief and the trouble is usually wiped out completely in twenty hours.

GRAND OPERA
STAR DIVORCED

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—A decree of divorce was granted to Marguerita Sylva, the grand opera star, by Judge Walker. The singer, whose name in private life was Mrs. William David Mann, is permitted to resume her maiden name, Alice Helen Smith. The testimony in her suit was heard on Thursday. She testified that her husband, who was formerly a theatrical manager, had deserted her after she had paid him $100 a month since shortly after their marriage in 1902. She declared that his principal business was "being her husband."
